

Feature: Log in at HyrDinBil AB
In order to book a rental car
Customer needs to login

Scenario: Log in as existing user

Given the user already has an account

And isn't on the blacklist

When customer enters correct login data

Then customer should be offered to start a process of booking a rental car

Scenario: When you are on the customers- blacklist

Given the user already has an account

And is on the blacklist

When customer enters correct login data

Then there will appear a message saying "you are blacklisted due to.." + "the cause"

Scenario: Error when attempting login with wrong data

Given that the user enters wrong user data

When trying to login

Then there should appear a error message

Scenario: Forgotten user/account data

Given that the user enters the -forgotten button

And fills in the form with correct information

When user sends off the form

Then the system verifies the information

And if correct the information that is given is correct

Then the system provides a "reset-link" to the user by email